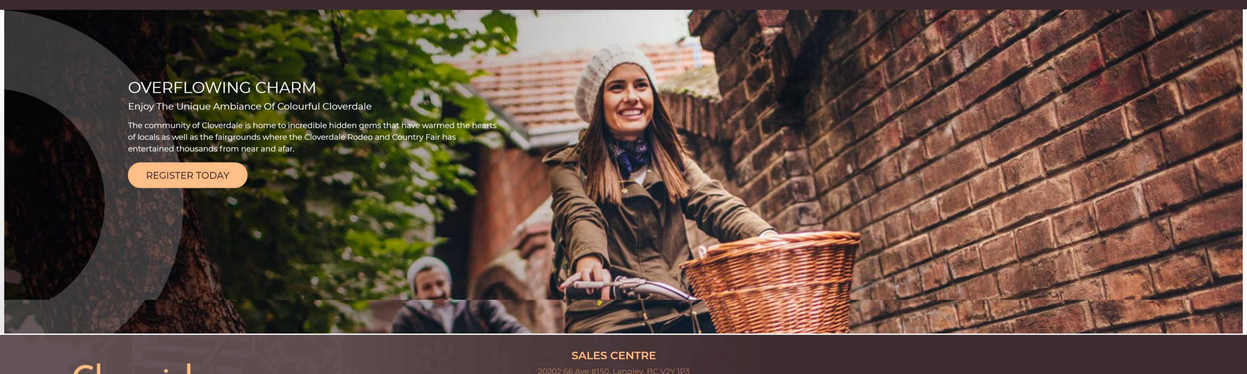
THE STAGE IS SET AND AWAITS THE STAR, YOU.

Newly designated heritage building, the Chronicle amenities space was originally constructed in 1924 and retains much of its original form with gabled roof, wooden knee brackets, and full-width porch. Significant for its association with the interwar agricultural development of Cloverdale and connection to well-known Surrey residents, John J. Main and his wife Edith who contributed much to the community. Feel connected to the past with this preserved piece of history. Perfect for gatherings to celebrate life's special occasions or to unwind while enveloped in the magic of a past era.



OVERFLOWING CHARM

Enjoy The Unique Ambiance Of Colourful Cloverdale

The community of Cloverdale is home to incredible hidden gems that have warmed the hearts of locals as well as the fairgrounds where the Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair has entertained thousands from near and afar.
