2 Bedroom Single-Level Cottages in Squamish

HIGHLINE
AT GARIBALDI SPRINGS

Nestled high upon a hill, Highline is a striking collection of modern mountain-inspired cottages designed for those who love spending time in nature.

Outdoor exploration is a way of life in a community that resides amongst 90 acres of ecological reserve and overlooks the Squamish valley with views of surrounding peaks and forest. These two bedroom homes are beautifully situated just a few steps or pedal strokes from Squamish's extensive trail system.

2 bedroom cottages priced from $958,000.

Beautiful place Beautiful homes

Modern alpine architecture featuring sharply pitched rooflines and black-framed windows, accented by natural wood and stone sets the tone for the homes at Highline. Spacious, well-designed interiors feature gourmet kitchens with central islands, spa-inspired ensuites, and thoughtful lifestyle details such as convenient bike storage and generous patios or balconies. Plus, enjoy the convenience of a bike storage room with space for storing all your adventure gear. At Highline, style and function are expertly balanced to create homes that enhance everyday living in a stunning mountain community.

- Gourmet kitchens with spacious islands become a natural gathering place in the home
- Spa-inspired ensuites complete with dual sinks and luxurious showers with integrated bench seating and a hand-held wand
- Rich wood laminate flooring runs throughout the main living areas.
- A patio and/or balcony extends living spaces outdoors
- Convenient bike storage for every home

Experience Sea-to-Sky Living

Located along the Sea to Sky corridor between Vancouver and Whistler, Squamish is a gorgeous and growing community known for its exceptional outdoor recreation, family-friendly lifestyle, and great work/life balance.

Stawamus Chief, one of North America's largest granite monoliths, soars over the city, the turquoise waters of Howe Sound, and surrounding coastal forests. This stunning scenery is the stage for some of the best windsurfing, kayaking, paddleboarding, hiking, mountain biking, trail running, backcountry skiing, and rock climbing in the world.

After exploring the great outdoors, locals and visitors alike enjoy the warm, welcoming atmosphere of Squamish's variety of restaurants, cafes, brewpubs, and boutiques. A vibrant arts & culture scene includes gallery walks, festivals and concerts, and there's plenty of family fun to be had at museums, adventure parks, and nearby lakes. Residents also have access to a wealth of convenient services, including excellent educational options ranging from daycare, elementary school, high school, a private university, and alternative learning options.
