
Quite simply, Eventide is unrivalled. Comprised of three contemporary private residences dispersed over a statuesque four-storey building, these unique homes have unobstructed ocean views and face the serene waters of English Bay, while the cosmopolitan air of downtown Vancouver stands at their back. Built with distinction and grace, this rare and limited collection of homes redefines the meaning of luxury. This is the coveted address of Beach Avenue. This is understated luxury. This is the finest in West Coast living.
