Value, Style & Convenience All Under One Roof

Parc Thompson is a collection of 120 beautifully-crafted townhomes that embody the true meaning of value. Each one of these thoughtfully-designed residences offers more than 1,100 sq ft of functional living space, complete with three bedrooms and an attached two-car garage.

Centered around a shared amenity space where families can gather and situated in a prime East Richmond location that's connected in all directions, Parc Thompson is a complete community where residents will feel proud to call home.

A Community to Call Home

Parc Thompson is located in an all-inclusive neighbourhood unlike any other within the Greater Vancouver Area. Immediately surrounding these homes, there are plenty of parks, green spaces and walking trails to explore, while the shopping and entertainment hub Queensborough Landing is mere minutes away.

When you need to travel further afield, this central location offers quick connections to a different destination in every direction including Richmond city centre, Surrey, New Westminster and Burnaby.
