
OVERVIEW

Lilibet is a return to community, family and comfort – it's a vision by a long-standing local developer who is well-versed in all three.

The collection of 59 One-Two and Three-bedroom Garden homes and Townhomes are arranged throughout eight low-density buildings.

Across the street from Queen Elizabeth Park, one block from vibrant Cambie Street, and a less than ten-minute walk to dynamic Main Street, Vancouver gems are a short bike, stroll, SkyTrain ride or drive away.
